ENCHANTING EUROPE & OBERAMMREGAU

Oberammergau Passion Play

In 1634 the Black Death decimated Europe's population. Oberammergau remained until a homesick villager returned one night, unknowingly bringing with him the dreaded plague. Almost 100 villagers died as a result. Frightened survivors vowed that if God saved them from the plague, once every 10 years they would reenact the agony and crucifixion of Christ. From then on there were no further deaths from the plague – and the villagers have fulfilled their pledge ever since.
